For 15 of the last 20 years, the California State Legislature has failed to adopt an on-time budget. The 2/3rds vote required to pass a budget has allowed a small group of Republican legislators to, quite literally, hold the people of California hostage, demanding cuts to education, health care, labor and environmental regulations. Senator Hancock believes we can fix this broken budget process.

Loni has introduced a constitutional amendment, SCA 5, which will restore a simple majority to pass our state budget. She is working to put the issue before California voters in 2010.

Foster Goldstrom has generously opened his wonderful Maybeck home for this event. Come and enjoy a stimulating afternoon in one of Oakland's historic homes. Be part of the change we want to see!
